

September 10, 2025: The same 'forces' that are making the sound agitations in my home about everything else I am doing, are also making more 'aggressive' sound agitations into my home as I read about Charlie Kirk today. You can piece together the rest. We are witnessing terrorism and false flag events. We are witnessing misdirections and agitations. We are certainly not witnessing peace, love, law and order, or the honest pursuit of happiness under this administration. Do the math. Is someone sending a message? (The noises near my home are saying 'yes')(In the form of a helicopter or other aircraft buzzing over our home right now.) (These 'forces' have been admitting things to me for years now. They can't stop 'talking' about their crimes. Why? Because their crimes are meant to be seen, felt, and experienced. Why? Because they are terrorists and terrorism requires people to experience the fear or else the event was a failure. Right?)(Isn't this why the forces are agitating my home right now? Where did these forces around me originate? Where is their root?)
